Quality Resources For Gifted and Talented Children

Presenter Warren Spanhake

"The greatest sign of success for a teacher... is being able to say... the children are now working as if I did not exist."

"Intellectuals solve problems, Geniuses prevent them."

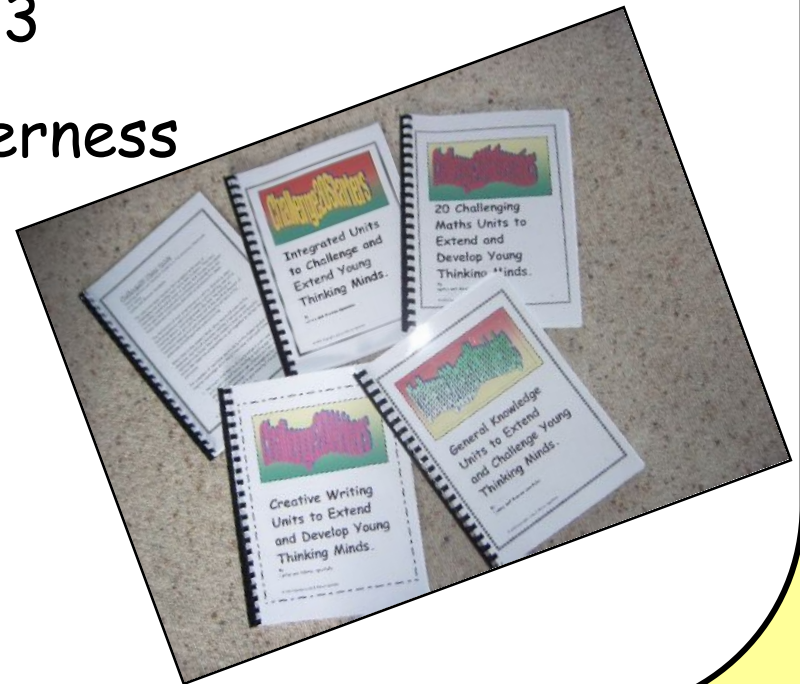

"Good teachers never teach anything. What they do is create the conditions under which learning takes place."

NAG 1 (III) c

Each Board through the Principal and Staff is required to

- (III) c – on the basis of good quality assessment information, identify students and groups of students who have special needs including gifted and talented students.
- (IV) - develop and implement teaching and learning strategies to address the needs of students and aspects of the curriculum identified in (III) c above.

Implications for Schools / Teachers

As from Term 1 2005, it will be mandatory for all State Integrated Schools to demonstrate how they are meeting the needs of Gifted and Talented Learners just as they are required to do so for other groups of students who have special needs.
